

The Mendelssohn Piano Trio

September 19, 2010 at 5:00 p.m.

The Houlihan McLean Center
Corner of Mulberry & Jefferson Aves
Scranton, PA

A truly exceptional chamber music ensemble, The Mendelssohn Piano Trio's extensive repertoire embraces works from all periods of the genre's history. The ensemble has performed and given master classes in a variety of venues nationwide and abroad, including universities, colleges, art academies, and music festivals, as well as an international radio feature of Voice of America

Pianist, Ya-Ting Chang is from Taiwan; violinist, Peter Sirotnin is from Russia; and cellist, Fiona Thompson is from England.

The public is invited to attend.
For additional information:

Anne Marie Stamford
Assistant Provost for Operations
The University of Scranton
St. Thomas Hall, Room 454
Scranton, PA 18510-6322
570-941-7731 (phone)
570-941-4386 (fax)